Our Bishop Visits Andrean

On April 27, 1966, Our Bishop, the Most Reverend Andrew G. Grutka, accompanied Joseph Cardinal Beran, exiled Archbishop of Prague, to Andrean for a formal visit and dinner. Five days later, Our Bishop paid an informal visit to the School with Francis Cardinal Sepers, Archbishop of Zagreb, Croatia.

The Blizzard Of '67

Unseosonobly high temperotures plummeted to the 20's, swirling snow began to blot out the dull winter landscape, and by one o'clock, excited and delighted, we were rushing out from early dismissol, little reolizing that things would suddenly be parolyzed. The snow continued to fall silently through the night, and by morning the forecast blizzord was o reality.

The snow had come and it cancelled the GAA Turnabout, the Mardi Gras, Daddy-Date Night, a couple of basketball games, and a wrestling meet. The school remained closed, the halls empty, the teachers enjoyed a few days off, and the students anticipoted on extended holidoy.

The school stood knee-deep in snow, while the plows worked feverishly to open the entronces ond the porking lot. Little by little Andrean revived, the snow diminished, and school resumed February 7.

Seniors — a Class Proud of Its Achievements

CLASS OFFICERS: Mark Hermes, President; Maggie Gavin, Vice-President; Anne O'Keefe, Secretary; Emmett Fitzgerald, Treasurer.

My dear Seniors,

In the past, my parting message to the Seniors was a reluctant good-bye and a sincere nostalgia at the thought of their leaving. But schools, like life, must go on, so with a farewell to them, I awaited another Senior class to take their place. This year it is different. As I say good-bye to you, the class of 1967, I also take my place alongside you and join you as you bid farewell to Andrean. For, this year, you and I graduate together.

I have loved Andrean, loved it ever since the day in the winter of 1959 when I saw it for the first time — a stark skeleton of steel reaching from the mud to the leaden skies. With each year my pride swelled as I saw it grow and take its place among the most respected schools of the state. I have been proud of its students and as I watched one class after another graduate, I hoped that, because they were true 59'ers, the world they were entering would become a better world, a more Christian world, because of their influence.

This same hope I cherish for you today. If my hope is realized, then Andrean has been a success. You are the ones who must prove this success.

To my last graduating class, I say good-bye. May God be with you to help you meet the Christian challenge of life.

"I will bless the Lord at all times;
His praise shall be on my lips continually.
My soul glories in the Lord;
let the humble hear and rejoice.
Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord,
together let us extol his name."

The Challenges Never End . . .

Four years . . . who could ever believe they would go so fast? The "greenie" Freshman days of Fr. Burke's first lecture . . . the thrills of phys ed . . . the excitement of Sophomore Class Day . . . spirited pep assemblies . . . our first votes for Homecoming Queen.

All too soon, we were the class of '67 — Juniors. Who could forget the "Falcon" making its debut . . . the Armageddon jug almost ours . . . "Giardina de Mille Fiori?"

And then we were Seniors! The chaos of paper drives . . . our hard work in the barn for Homecoming . . . the parties at Lake Eliza . . . preparations for the prom . . . a class united and looking forward to graduation, and the end of four wonderful years. The end, but really the beginning.

Randi Jacobs and Carol DiPaola assist at "Sayanara," the '66 pram.

"The Finest of the Finest"

Happy faces, blaring horns, headlights blinking, gay colored streamers and the "never-say-die" spirit of the "niners" pervaded the clear, brisk air and set the mood for Andrean's annual Homecoming at Gilroy Stadium, October 29th, 1966. The tension mounted and grew to fever pitch until the words of James Chelich, Student Council President, rang out on the stadium public address system, "The 1966 Homecoming Queen of Andrean High School is . . . Adelle Wagner!" The wind and cold were quickly forgotten as the student body warmly cheered the announcement. Cindy Ramirez, Andrean's Homecoming Queen of 1965, presented Adelle with a dozen long-stemmed gold roses as Jim placed the crown on her head.

Queen Adelle and her court, Maggie Gavin, Sue Gregoline, Linda Kalicki, and Jeanne Tully, ascended the float for the traditional ride down Broadway back to school. Following were the underclassmen's float and about 120 decorated cars. The festivities were climaxed at the Homecoming dance that evening. The Queen and her court, in their flowing formal gowns, were escorted by Mark Hermes, Marty Kopchik, Tom Grzesik, Rich Yelusich, and Mike Maloney. Sean McCormick, captain of the football team, presented our queen with the traditional autographed football from the team.

James Chelich could have chosen no better a phrase to summarize Homecoming 1966 than "finest of the finest."
